

ADLER & BRO.
FINE
Boots & Shoes
No. 261 Main Street.
(Cousins' Old Stand).
MEMPHIS, TENN.

PUBLIC LEADER.

VOL. XXV.

MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE, WEDNESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 18, 1882.

NO. 41

Loeb & Mook,
235 MAIN STREET.
SHIRTMAKERS
AND GENTS' FURNISHERS.

Established 1862. Re-established 1882

GEORGE ARNOLD & CO.,
WHOLESALE GROCERS

Cotton Factors,
And General Commission Merchants,
272 FRONT ST., Memphis, Tenn.

Railroad and Levee Contractors' Supplies.

We will give careful attention to the Purchase and Sale of Goods not in our line, and will make liberal Cash Advances on Cotton or other consignments.

JOHN D. MILBURN, President.
LOUIS HANAUER, Vice-President.
THOMAS L. RISK, Superintendent.
C. W. EDMONDS, Secretary and Treasurer.

MILBURN IRON WORKS,
Manufacturers of Steam Engines, Horse Powers, Cotton Presses

Oil Mill Machinery,
And all kinds of Iron and Brass Castings, Fences and House
Fronts, Agricultural, Plantation, Steamboat, Railroad and Mill Work.

Nos. 1, 3, 5 and 7 Front St., cor. Auction, Memphis, Tenn.

We are thoroughly equipped to do all work pertaining to the Foundry and Machine Shop Business.

JOHN S. TOOF, E. L. MCGOWAN, BEN. J. BUSHY.

Busby, Toof & McGowan,
Wholesale Grocers and Cotton Factors,
No. 274 Front St.,
W. G. PATTERSON, Cotton Salesman.

Handling of COTTON a specialty. Liberal Cash advances made on consignments.

J. T. LA PRAD, Late of Star Landing, Miss. W. D. MOON, Late with Lemmon & Gale

H. M. FERGUSON, with La PRAD & MOON,
Saddles, Harness and Collars,
SADDLERY, HARDWARE and LEATHER

Nos. 301-303 Main Street, Memphis, Tenn.

Saw Mill! Saw Mill!
JOHN ZENT,
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALER IN
Pine, Cypress, Oak and Walnut
LUMBER,
Laths, Shingles, Etc.

Mill Opposite Gas Works, Memphis.

This establishment deals in first-class Lumber, and guarantees satisfaction in all instances.
The blue cars run within one-half square of the Mill.

CARVER GIN
Machine Co.,
Corner Shelby and McCall Sts.,
Memphis, Tenn.

Manufacturers of Milburn's Patent Roller
Roller Eclipsing Hulling Gin, Milburn's Roller-
Brest Anti-Friction Gin, Milburn's Complete
Cleaning Condenser, Flynn Feeder, Mc-Dermott and Ginson Cotton Presses. All the best Machinery of the kind built. Send for Illustrated Catalogue.

THE JUBILEE HOPKINS
COSTUMES

FOR Display in the Jubilee Procession made to order by SAM MAF, 205½ Main. All parties who intend to join in the Display will please leave their orders as soon as possible.

Jubilee Privilege.

SHALL be received for the privilege of wearing a costume in the Jubilee Procession, from which the people may have a good view of the Grand Firework Display on the night of the 26th inst. Halls will be opened on WEDNESDAY, the 18th inst. For further information call on J. M. GOODBARR, chairman, and address all bills to him.

J. M. GOODBARR, Chairman.

W. W. SCHOLFIELD, JOHN K. SPED, Committee.

H. Bittenberg,
MANUFACTURER OF AWNINGS,
Tents, Cots,
MATTRESSES
FURNITURE.
No. 231 Second St.

AVERY GIN CO.
HAVE IN STOCK THE
Eagle Eclipse Hulling Gin & Feeder
Which took the Premium at Atlanta, Ga.

ALSO HAVE THE
Eagle 10 and 12-inch Gins,
Eagle Feeders & Condensers,
Avery Gin Feeder and Condenser,
Check Cotton, Cleaner,
Southern Standard Press.

Special terms to the trade.
W. A. KNIFE, Proprietor,
No. 275 Front St., Memphis.

Funeral Directors,
No. 320 MAIN ST., Memphis, Tenn.

A full and complete stock of Wood and Metallic Cases and Caskets.
Cloth covered Caskets and Burial
Robes always on hand.

Orders by telegraph from city filled, 178

HON. C. B. SIMONTON takes Col. Casey Young's place in the speaking at Clifton, eight miles south of Covington. This is done to give Col. Young a day's rest which he needs. Mr. Simonton and Hon. John Green Hall will speak at Atoka next Friday in behalf of Bate, Young and the true Democracy and also in behalf of the legislative ticket. Ed. Slow will speak at the same place that night to the colored people.

Missouri's reputation has turned the other way. From being a State in which desperadoes could find safety, it has become very dangerous for this class. Jesse James was killed—not by a legal process, it is true, but by a comrade in crime who was protected by the State. Frank, harassed and worn out, surrendered. Bob Taylor, a Tennessean, who took refuge in that State, was promptly faced and killed the other day by a Sheriff on a train. The desperado classes will have to move on. There may be room for them in Arizona, New Mexico or somewhere else for a few years longer.

A DESIRE has been expressed by a number of our citizens to hear Hon. C. B. Simonton speak. He made a very pleasant impression in this city and county during his brief canvass, and our people would like to know him better. He is a good speaker, a gallant, unselfish gentleman, and is making an effective canvass on his own account for General Bate, Hon. Casey Young and true Democracy. In this he follows his conscientious promptings, and is well calculated to impress his views upon others. We hope that he will be invited to speak in Memphis at an early day.

As anticipated by the LEADER yesterday, the killing of Colonel Slayback by Colonel Cokerill was found to be a clear case of self defense, and he was acquitted at the Coroner's inquest. This will probably be the last of the legal proceedings. The murdered man, a great favorite with the people, is in his grave, and the man who edited their favorite paper and did the killing in self-defense is free. The conditions by which Col. Slayback was surrounded perhaps required him to go in and get killed, as he did. How much better is this style of killing than by the pre-arranged duel where both men have a chance?

THE suits brought against Samuel J. Tilden for political purposes has been dismissed. The power of the government was shamefully prostituted by the party in power to break down the character of a man who was elected to the Presidency. It was an outrageous political persecution, a disgrace to all who had a hand in or countenanced it or profited by the Presidential steal. Tilden is a retired statesman, but in his time he gave the Republican party more trouble than any Democrat who has arisen since the war. He was feared and hated. Now that he is out of the way, and will probably never again appear in politics actively, they can afford to drop these suits and will probably not concern themselves so seriously again in regard to the state of his health. Tilden's name will be far more honored in the future when fair, impartial verdicts are made up, than the weak, selfish man who accepted an office to which he knew he was not elected.

THE course of Gen. R. N. Hood, of Blount county, in coming out for Gen. Bate is highly creditable. He is a man of very positive views and when his mind is made up it is hard to change. For a time he followed or co-operated with the old leaders who backed the sky blue movement. But when he saw that they were playing into the hands of Hawkins and asking him to do something that neither his judgment or his conscience could approve he promptly disavowed any further connection with the scheme. It is a difficult matter for any man of any force to admit openly that he was wrong and had been supporting a wrong policy, only a real man can do this. General Hood naturally found himself in company with the Bailey-James crowd. He was on Governor Porter's staff during his administration, he was and is a railroad man, and was an earnest supporter of Judge John V. Wright two years ago. Under all circumstances since he came out of the Union army at the end of the war he has been an unflinching Democrat in a county and district that is overwhelmingly Republican. When asked to swallow Hawkins it was too much. He looked at the fact proposed and turned away with disgust and contempt. He will not be found in the Republican camp on election day, or any other day. His course is significant of the feeling in East Tennessee, where Fossell will not poll 500 votes outside of Chattanooga. Colonel Edwards, who was the Greenback candidate for Governor two years ago, has also come out for General Bate. When it came to a choice between Hawkins and Bate he could no longer hesitate. The ball is still rolling. Every change that is made is in favor of Bate. There is scarcely a doubt that he will poll more votes than all his competitors. The people despise a coalition, and will express themselves at the ballot box in a way not to be misunderstood. An out and out Republican or Greenbacker, or even so-called Independent, is all right. He can command the respect of all parties, but for those who, through blindness, stubbornness, fanaticism or pure cussedness persevere in saying one thing and doing another, and call the Radical flag a Democratic flag, the sentiment felt is better restrained than spoken.

ONE of the Democratic nominees for the Legislature, in this city, is held up as a terror by some of the sky blues because he is a member of a wholesale whisky firm. Mr. Kelly was not nominated on account of his business, nor do we know of any rule in law, morals or public policy that would exclude him from a participation in politics. He is a quiet, law-abiding citizen, who pays his taxes and attends to his business like other people. As long as the National and State governments permit the distilling of whiskies and the brewing of beer, it follows that the handling of these articles of commerce will be done by somebody. Different States have their own restrictions, especially when it comes down to the retail branch of the business. In Tennessee we have a four mile law which has worked well. It prohibits the sale of liquor within four miles of a chartered educational institution, except within an incorporated place. Charters are cheap, and they have been a great protection to little places that cannot afford a police to break up the noisy crowds that come in on Saturdays or on public occasions to get drunk. There is no desire by any class or party, as far as we know, to disturb this law. It is likely, may certain, to stand as it is, regardless of any result of the election. General Bate is in favor of letting it stand. Mr. Kelly is in favor of the law, and has so stated on the stump. This question has been lugged into the canvass for temporary use only. Its sponsors care nothing for it what ever, and have no idea of espousing the temperance cause after this canvass. They may catch a few votes, though this is doubtful. The sincerity loving people see through the trick and will not be misled. The sky blues as a class are not more distinguished for their temperance practices and principles than the straight Democrats, to say the least, and there is unfortunately no vast surplus of enthusiasm in behalf of the temperance cause to be found in any quarter. The cartoon representing a prominent four-mile maker labeled "Robertson County" did not purport to be facetious but was suggestive. There are noble men and women in this State who are sincerely in favor of prohibition, or of stronger restrictions than the whisky traffic that exist now; but if they expect aid and moral support at the hands of the sky blue Democrats, as a distinct faction after this canvass, they are doomed to disappointment.

GOV. HAWKINS.
His Unsatisfactory Answers as to His Course in the Red-treting Muddle.

Special to the American.

MILAN, October 16.—Governor Hawkins, in company with his body guard, Beasley and Russell, passed here yesterday. In reply to the question as to what he was going to do about the red-treting muddle, he said substantially that he had the matter under advisement; that it was a mere technical question raised by a clerical error for which he was not responsible, and was disposed to think it amounted to nothing. He said if he should call the Legislature together they would perhaps get to filibustering and do nothing before the election. He did not appear disposed to interview freely, and was evidently anxious to avoid the subject. He impressed your correspondent as a man in a dilemma, predisposed to take the horn which promised to give his party ground for the objection to the admission of the Tennessee delegation in the next Congress.

ADDITIONAL COTTON.

New York, October 18, 12:25 p.m.—Cotton dull and 5/16 lower. Ordinary, 8 1/2; good ordinary, 10; low middling, 10 1/2; middling, 11 1/4; good middling, 11 1/2; middling fair, 12 1/4; fair, 13. Futures are steady at 10 to 10 1/2 cents below last evening's closing prices.

LIVERPOOL, October 18, 8 p.m.—Cotton dull and 1/16 lower. Uplands, 6 1/2-10; Orleans, 6 1/2-10. Sales to-day, 8000 bales. Receipts, 18,400 bales. American, 18,400 bales. Futures are steady.

NEW ORLEANS, October 18, 11:30 a.m.—Cotton easy. Middling, 10 1/2. Sales 900 bales. Receipts, 3402 bales.

COTTON STATISTICS.
October 18, 1882.

Stock, September 1, 1882, 1,630

Received to-day, 207

Shipped to-day, 154

Home consumption to date, 14,201-15,202

Shipped previously, 14,201-15,202

Stock running account, 20,153

IMPORTS.

Receipts thus far this week, 11,653

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

To-day per M. & C. R. R., 207

FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

CAIRO, October 18.—The difficulty in regard to the counsel for Arabi Pasha continues. Possibly a compromise can be found by arranging for counsel to advise Arabi, but prohibiting them from addressing the Court.

DUBLIN, October 18.—Mr. Cassidy, a delegate from Manchester to the Irish National Conference, was expelled with insults and threats from the body for moving an obnoxious amendment.

CONSTANTINOPLE, October 18.—The Porte has sent a note to the British Ambassador announcing its readiness to negotiate a settlement of the Egyptian question.

Two Victims at Large.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—The victims who perpetrated the terrible tragedy at Minden yesterday have not been seen or heard of since their disappearing in the darkness. The whole country is aroused, and their final escape is hardly possible. Governor Nance offers a large reward and is making every effort in his power. The adjutant general and the State Guards have gone to the scene. Extraordinary activity characterized the Executive in capturing the desperadoes. Rewards will be offered by the county authorities. Two men, the Colonel and a Mexican named Belmont, two partners in pony dealing, but not at the shooting, were arrested today at Hastings. Sheriff Woods' body will arrive here to-morrow and be buried here.

A PIECE OF WEDDING CAKE.

The Horse Reporter Entertains a Nice Girl, Who Boldly Visits the Sanctum.

Chicago Tribune.

"Do you edit here?"

The several occupants of the room looked around and discovered a young lady standing in the doorway. She nodded, slightly to the reporter, and that individual returned the salutation with a placid smile and a half-over-eight-hundred smile whose grandeur of expanse would alone have made it noticeable.

"You are right this time, madam," he said. "This is the exact spot where the seething brain of the trained journalist proceeds to bubble and the lance of thought that pierces with unerring aim the brazen helmets of the Wrong are ever held in couchant poise by a strong arm ready to launch them forth at the slightest signal of danger."

"Papa doesn't know I'm up here," said the vision of loveliness, "but mamma. The very minute I told her that I was going to see an editor she said it was the best thing to do, but when I got right to the door I thought I should die."

"You don't appear to be in danger of immediate dissolution," remarked the horse reporter.

"Of course I don't mean exactly that," said the young lady, "but I was awfully nervous, you know—I was always that way—and when I was a little girl papa used to say that the only way to govern me was by kindness."

"Well, we'll be gentle with you," replied the mortal friend of Rarri.

"Would you like to read the Hawkinsville Clarion or the Cohoese Freeman?" pointing to a pile of exchanges.

"No, I don't care about it, thank you," was the reply. "You editors must have a hard time managing all the people who come up here."

"There is a managing editor for that purpose," said the horse reporter.

"How nice! And all these gentlemen edit?"

"Yes."

"I'm going to be married next week," said the young lady. "Ain't it funny?"

"Quite ludicrous, no doubt," was the reply.

"And I come up here," she continued, "to see if you would put a nice notice of the affair in the paper. Will you do it?"

"Certainly," said the horse reporter. "Would you like to have me refer to you as 'another one of those delightful events in which the happiness of a trusting love finds glad fruition in wedded bliss,' or 'the marriage bells rang out merrily last evening, telling the star-trail of a joyful tale of love's final triumph?' Both these sentences are kept in type and you can have your choice of them."

"I rather like the last one best," said the young lady. "It is more tenderly beautiful. Don't you think so?"

"Yes," replied the horse reporter, "there is a sort of curling will-not-tinge-to-night time to it that lays over the first one."

"Well, then, I will take that. And will an editor be around to write it up?"

"Certainly."

"I will send you a piece of the wedding cake," continued the young lady.

"Do," said the horse reporter.

"There is a dog up my way that needs killing."

I. O. G. T.

Reception by the Grand Lodge of Good Templars—Freeholdings Yesterday

Nashville Banner, 17th.

A reception of the delegates to the Grand Lodge of Good Templars was held at the capital last night.

Rev. R. M. Tinnon delivered the address of welcome.

Rev. J. S. Hill also addressed the meeting.

Mr. T. B. Demore spoke stirringly of the cause of temperance.

Mr. Tinnon said the four-mile law in Tennessee was a great law. The people would see to it that it was never repealed. Were the people to repeal it prohibition would be incorporated in the State constitution within two years. Whisky here could do anything. It could elect to responsible officers anybody that it wanted to. Five years ago it could have elected anybody in the State. Each flag that our saloons hung out was the black flag of death to manhood, honor and society. The money spent for whisky annually in the United States was $700,000,000; for education, $300,000,000; for churches, $250,000,000. Intemperance was annually carrying to their graves 70,000 men.

The reception closed with an address by G. W. Bain, of Kentucky.

The Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Good Templars met this morning in the House of Representatives. Quite a number of the subordinate lodges were represented. There were present Geo. W. Bain, the great temperance lecturer; Colonel J.

The Memphis Mutual Aid Society pays a Four-Month Marriage Benefit, a Twenty-Day Natal Benefit, and have the strongest One-Day Company in existence. They pay charges on applications by telegraph.

GRAND JUBILEE!

AT MEMPHIS, TENN.,

Thursday, October 26th.

THE GRAND

Spectacular and Industrial Procession

Will Move Through the Principal Streets of the City on the Morning of the 26th of October, 1882, commencing at 9 o'clock, in the following order:

The Chief and Squadron of Mounted Police. Music.

MILITARY COMPANIES OF MEMPHIS,

Both Infantry and Artillery.

FIRE BRIGADE WITH ENGINES

And other Apparatus Complete. City Officers and Guests in Carriages. Music.

Grand Industrial Procession!

Headed by a Pyrobalic National Flag, representing

LIBERTY AND THE FOUR GREAT SECTIONS OF AMERICA

Personified by Beautiful Young Ladies in Typical Costume. Following this will be Presented Floats Descriptive of Progress, Enterprise and Manufacturers of Memphis

After the procession an oration upon the South, and upon "Memphis and her Triumph over her Enemies," and "The Dawn of Prosperity and Wealth in the Taming District." At 2 o'clock the Race Course of the Memphis Jockey Club will be open. FREE TO THE FIELD FOR ALL. The best horses in America will compete for large purses.

FIREWORKS, FREE for ALL.

At 7:30 o'clock, on the bluff, in front of the City, will be exhibited the Grandest Pyrotechnic Display ever given in the South. A thousand bombs and rockets will at once be set off, and the air will be filled with the rushing and aerial bouquet of exploding shells. The display will be a grand and sublime sight, and will be a grand and sublime sight, and will be a grand and sublime sight.

A GRAND MASQUERADE BALL.

Will be given at the Exposition Building, under the protection of the Chief of Police and the direction of a number of prominent citizens, whose management will insure the pleasure of all. This will close the Grandest Fete Day Ever Given in Memphis.

Excursion Rates on all Railroads and Steamboats, Half Fare or Less. Ask Agents at Depots or Landings for Excursion Tickets to the Jubilee and Races.

JUBILEE

Grand Masquerade Ball!

AT EXPOSITION BUILDING,